NOTICE OF MOTION

NOTICE OF MOTION FROM COUNCILLOR SANGSTER RE SOUTH AUSTRALIA DAY

Councillor Sangster (after discussion with Councillor Hudson and Mayor Clyne) has given notice of intention to move the following motion at the Special Council meeting to be held on Wednesday 28 March 2012:

That:

the General Meeting:

1. Instructs the LGA to write to the relevant Minister to consider renaming "Proclamation Day" to "South Australia Day" to better reflect the history and actions of the settlement of South Australia and that the LGA undertake an investigation regarding the historical settlement of SA with specific reference to:
 - the State of South Australia being made on 19 February 1836 in London by King William the Fourth;
 - the events surrounding the landing and settlement on Kangaroo Island in July/August 1836;
 - the historical facts surrounding the original tree that the settlers sheltered under;
 - and any other such historical instances of note which the research unveils.
